EXTENDED CARE PROGRAM

Episcopal provides Extended Care for students in grades Pre-K3 through 8th grade who stay on campus after school and who are not involved in supervised activities. During the extended care hours, students will have the opportunity to enjoy after-school snacks, to engage in social/play time with their peers, and to complete homework assignments. Extended Care hours are from 2:45 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. on regular school days.

Upper School students are not required to be enrolled in Extended Care; Aldrich Library is open for their use until 5:30 p.m.

Parents who are interested in having their children participate in the Extended Care program will be asked to complete an enrollment form and a hold harmless statement during the summer before school begins. This form required for families who will be using Extended Care services on an occasional basis as well as for those who will take advantage of our services daily.

Payment options for the Extended Care Program are as follows:

- Option 1: Pre-Paid/Pre-Registration Program, $900 annually per child
- Option 2: Daily Drop-In Rate of $20.00 per visit per student
