

LAUNCH 2019 at Episcopal School of Baton Rouge

a student-led celebration of individual artistic & academic achievements and ideas

Preliminary Presentations & Performances

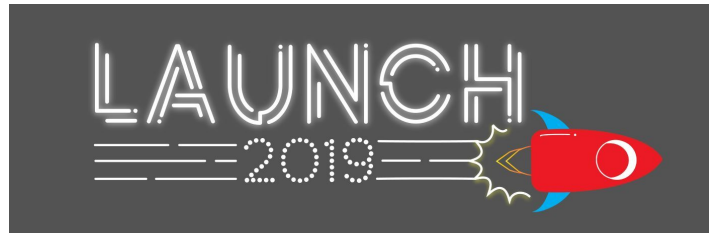

Monday, February 18

2:35-3:05

The Visual & Performing Arts Center - Main Theatre

“Keeping it Personal: Insight Into the Power of Introspection”

presented by Honors Thesis Candidates Megan MacMillan, Todd McInnis & Madeleine Cope

LAUNCH Day

Presentations, Performances, & Events

Thursday, February 21

8:00-8:35

The Visual & Performing Arts Center - Main Theatre

“A New Frame of Mind: Reconsidering the System & Sticking it to the Man” presented by Honors Thesis Candidates Douglas Robins & Hallie Sternberg with a special performance by Dance Master Seminar

8:40-9:15*

The Visual & Performing Arts Center - Main Theatre

“Under the Radar: Reevaluating the Sources We Trust”

presented by Honors Thesis Candidates Austin Broussard, Owen Johnson & David Whitehurst

9:20-9:55*

The Visual & Performing Arts Center - Black Box Theatre
"Not What You Paid For: How New Technologies Raise New Markets"
presented by Honors Thesis Candidates Ajit Alapati, Thomas Hugenholtz &
Taner Morgan

10:00-10:30

Academic Commons & Periodic Table Plaza
LAUNCH Pad: a Celebration of Student Community

10:35-11:10*

Aldrich Library
"From Nanoscale to Scale Insects: Impacts and Applications of the Miniscale" presented by ESTAAR Scholars Clay Burton, Emily Frazer & Abigail Johnson

11:15-11:50*

The Visual & Performing Arts Center - Lobby
"An AP & Pre-AP Studio Art Showcase" featuring works by AP Seniors Caitlin Davis, Alex Harrison & Erin Petty; Juniors
Tanner Bodron, Sophia Graves & Ian Sabolik; and Sophomores Allison Binning, Katie Knight, Grace Scott & Ellie Veillon

11:55-12:35

The Visual & Performing Arts Center - Main Theatre
"Oh the Humanity!: An Exploration of the Horrors Plaguing Humans and How to Rise Above" presented by Honors Thesis Candidates Morgan Patty, Graham Perkins
& Ethan Wax

12:35-1:10

Quad & Academic Commons Periodic Table Plaza
Lunch with LAUNCH Pad

1:15-1:40

Upper School Student Center
"A Visual Diary: Exploring Self-Revelation through the Artistic Process"
An Art Reception & Talk presented by Visual Artist & AP Studio Art Student
Claire Hook

1:45-2:10

The Visual & Performing Arts Center - Main Theatre
"Discovering Meaning: The Importance of Connection in a Growing World"
presented by Honors Thesis Candidates Adele Broussard & Alyssa Macaluso

2:15-2:40

The Visual & Performing Arts Center - The Black Box Theatre
"In Plain Sight: Confronting the Blind Sops of Modern Society" presented by Honors Thesis Candidates Mason LaFerney & Lauren Smith

2:45-3:10

Aldrich Library
"Honoring the Code: Improving Holistic Student"
presented by Honors Thesis Candidate Ben Levine
featuring KnightVision Robotics

3:10-3:20

The Visual & Performing Arts Center - Main Theatre
"When Life Gets Ruff: How Dogs Can Aid in Alleviating Stress" presented by Honors
Thesis Candidate Ashley Solomon

*Designates a morning rotation session. So each session is repeated in each time slot.

Designates an afternoon rotation session. So each session is repeated in each time slot.