

Spanish

Exemplary

The student consistently participates in class with a positive attitude.

The student exceeds the expectations to communicate in the target language.

- The student recognizes many familiar words and phrases when he/she hears them spoken.
- The student independently creates sentences and phrases based on familiar topics.
- The student can comprehend many memorized words and phrases when read.
- The student can talk about basic personal information and other familiar topics using simple sentences.

The student consistently follows directions and stays on-task.

Proficient

The student participates in class most of the time with a positive attitude.

The student meets the expectations to communicate in the target language.

- The student recognizes some familiar words and phrases when he/she hears them spoken.
- The student creates sentences and phrases based on familiar topics with some help.
- The student can comprehend some memorized words and phrases when read.
- The student can talk about basic personal information and other familiar topics using phrases.

The student follows directions and stays on-task most of the time.

Developing

The student sometimes participates in class with a positive attitude.

The student meets the expectations to communicate in the target language.

- The student recognizes a few familiar words and phrases when he/she hears them spoken.
- The student cannot yet create sentences and phrases based on familiar topics.
- The student can comprehend a few memorized words and phrases when read.
- The student can talk about basic personal information and other familiar topics using single words.
- The student sometimes follows directions and stays on-task.